

Two of the worlds best selling European models are now available with R-Line features – Volkswagen Golf and Tiguan.

Volkswagen have added to the impressive R Line range with the inclusion of the Golf and Tiguan 2WD. This compliments the current Passat and Tiguan 4WD, with Touareg models following in May and new Passat later in 2015.

R-Line models are known for their sporty R-Line styling and we have seen the R-Line badge across the Volkswagen range from Polo right through to Touareg.

Tom Ruddenklau is understandably excited about the new editions to the Golf and Tiguan range; the new models “represents outstanding value, R-Line packages normally retail well over $4,000 and these new editions are another milestone for Volkswagen New Zealand to show our commitment to brilliant value. We bring the World’s best, at accessible prices to more Kiwi’s”.
